

QUALITY AND ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

ALTAC managing staff has defined as a main objective to develop its activities with the greater quality level, considering also the protection of the environment as integrated elements in its projects.

Due to this reason the managing staff of the company, commits in the development and revision of the Quality and Environmental Policy expressed in the following points:

- ❑ To implant the Quality and Environmental System at all operations, activities and services related to the activity of the Company.
- ❑ To assure that legal requirements and norms subscribed by ALTAC are fulfilled, maintaining an updated registry of them.
- ❑ To establish Quality and Environmental Objectives, reviewing its fulfillment, with the purpose of preventing the possible negative effects with our activities in the surroundings, taking as it bases the legal requirements and the Quality and Environmental Policy, and the continuous improvement of the activities and services of ALTAC.
- ❑ ALTAC bases its Environmental Management on the control of their Remainders, Emissions, Spills and Consumption of natural resources, and avoiding the materials that could be dangerous and/or polluting.
- ❑ To promote the qualification of all the personnel to know, understand and assure the Quality and Environmental System implantation in the company, working in a responsible way for the protection for the surroundings and the satisfaction of the clients.
- ❑ To promote among suppliers and subcontractors such principles of protection and continuous improvement by ALTAC.
- ❑ The continuous improvement of the Quality and Environmental Management, by means of the prevention and the analysis of causes of arisen problems, not to be limited to detection of them.
- ❑ The Quality and Environmental Policy of ALTAC is at disposal of suppliers, clients, associations, institutions and the the whole society.

Signed

Jesús Serradilla Echarri
General Manager

Date: 16.02.03